REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD

The School Board tender this report with deepest feeling to all citizens of the town; we wish all to know our efforts have been toward maintaining the best for children, parents and schools.

Our expenses we realize are large, and as you can see we ask for more High School tuition than formerly. We feel the Town should be proud to have so many of our young persons go on to further education. Of the ten graduates last June, nine are continuing an education. Not many years back this would have been a rare instance.

The yard at the Elm School has been graded and fenced, also minor repairs made in all four schools. This coming summer we plan to paint our school buildings inside to make them fresher.

The East School has doubled its enrollment in the past two years, and something must be done to add to its sanitary system. As a Board we are considering the problem, but hesitate to spend too much in these times of depression.

We solicit the interest of all citizens of the school district in all school work; also any inquiries into this report, or our plans for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

ERNEST F. GAY,
DOROTHY H. FORBES, Chairman,
PHYLLIS S. SMITH, Secretary,
School Board.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board:

I have the honor to present my third annual school report.

During the past year our schools have functioned well. Due to the fact that we have been able to keep experienced teachers on the job, we have conducted better schools than those communities where they have a complete turnover at the end of the year. Credit is reflected both on those directly connected with the schools, and on the town, when the same personnel remains on the job for a period of years.

Our school buildings taken as a whole, are in good condition. Improvements are being made every year. Both teachers and scholars enjoy comfortable quarters.

The East School is the only one which needs extensive changes. The most needed improvements are—more window light, the elimination of cross lights, a hardwood floor, and a better toilet arrangement. I recommend that something be done soon to give the children who attend the school in question as good comforts as are enjoyed by the pupils who attend the other schools.

The question of adequate water supply for the schools should be seriously considered. Proper habits of cleanliness cannot be cultivated without access to nearby plentiful sources of water.

The purchase of a small tract of land to enlarge the playground for the children of the Elm School was a wise act. The yard has been in places filled in, in others graded down, affording the children a suitable play space. An iron fence has been put around the school yard. This makes it safer for the children and easier to stay where they belong.

It is gratifying that such a large percentage of our boys and girls remain in school until they graduate from the eighth grade, and that so many go on to high school at Ashland and Plymouth. I have kept in contact with our high school pupils in both schools, and I know that they are doing good work, and are getting ready for worth while life activities. I regret that all the Holderness high school pupils do not attend a high school under my supervision. If such were the case I could better cater to their needs.

Holderness is geographically so situated that many children are obliged to attend school in neighboring towns. Our relations with the towns in question are cordial. They accommodate our children efficiently and cheerfully.

Considering that the roads are being improved every year, and that snow plows keep them clear of snow during the winter months, travelling conditions are much better today than the most optimistic hoped ten years ago. Distance is no longer a drawback. It is only a question of time when it will be in order to plan for some form of consolidation. People no longer fear this word. Good roads and motor vehicles at the present time enable the city and the country to exchange advantages with no detriment to either. The best educational opportunities are not to be secured in one-room schools. A one-room school capable of giving children as good advantages as a consolidated school, would make the unit cost of education too high. Besides a one-room school lacks the inspiration which is found in numbers. An educational system is required which will be capable of educating boys and girls for present day living.

During the winter months when children do not spend as long outdoors as they do during the other seasons, diseases peculiar to children prevail. Absence from school, loss of educational opportunity paid for, failure to make the grade, unnecessary suffering are the result. Towns which have the services of a school nurse working in conjunction with a physician succeed in stamping out such scourges. Ashland is such an example. The only help which many unfortunate cases in several towns in our supervisory union have received during the past three years has been due to the kindness of the Ashland District Nurse Association which organization has allowed me to borrow the services of its nurse to go with me and administer aid to sick children, and helpless families. Considering the dangers hinted at in this discussion, it would be very desirable for Holderness to unite with three or four other towns and share the expense of hiring a school nurse the year round. I suggest this as another good topic for discussion at the next meeting of the school district.

I have kept in close contact with the boys and girls, the teachers, the school board, and in a general way with the public.

With the continued interest and desire to grow on the part of the community as a whole, our desire for a continuous improvement of an educational spread which will provide for the individual and collective needs of every child will be realized.

Respectfully submitted,

VINCENT GATTO.
